

RUDY S. RANDAZZO

Practice Areas

Governmental Affairs

Products Liability, Toxic Tort and Mass Tort

Areas of Emphasis

Eminent Domain

Land Use

Real Estate

Overview

Rudy S. Randazzo practices in Riker Danzig's Governmental Affairs and Public Utilities Groups as well as its Products Liability, Toxic Tort and Mass Tort Group.

Rudy is a well-rounded litigator who is versed in the counseling of public entity and private clients. He has represented several public and quasi-public entities in complex litigation, including the Casino Reinvestment Development Authority, the New Jersey Schools Development Authority, the Delaware River Port Authority, several municipalities, Buckeye Pipe Line Company and Rockland Electric Company. On the private side, Rudy has significant experience in construction litigation, eminent domain litigation, land use litigation, and general real estate litigation. He has successfully conducted several trials, including jury trials, and has handled multiple appeals before the New Jersey Appellate Division and the New

Counsel

973.451.8435

rrandazzo@riker.com

Jersey Supreme Court.

Rudy graduated from Rutgers University with a degree in archaeology where he pursued original research on important topics in new world archaeology. He earned his law degree from Fordham University School of Law in 2008. Rudy served on the Environmental Law Review and Moot Court team at Fordham Law School, where he received the Emmet J. McCormack Prize for Excellence in Admiralty Law.

Thomson Reuters has included him on the Super Lawyers "Rising Star" list for Business Litigation since 2013. See Awards and Honors Methodology.

No aspect of this advertisement has been approved by the Supreme Court of New Jersey.

Education

Fordham University School of Law, J.D., 2008

Rutgers University, B.A., 2005

Bar Admissions

New Jersey