

Counsel Jeffrey Beyer Elected to Board of Directors of Grow it Green Morristown

Counsel Jeffrey M. Beyer has been elected to the Board of Directors of Grow it Green Morristown. GIGM, based in Morristown, New Jersey, is a non-profit organization whose mission is to create sustainable farms and gardens that provide equal access to fresh, local food, and to educate communities through programs focused on healthy eating and environmental stewardship. The organization transforms abandoned or under-utilized areas of Morristown into beautiful and useful green spaces. By engaging and educating local residents, GIGM aims to be a catalyst for positive change in Morristown, helping it to be a healthy and vibrant community.

Grow it Green Morristown co-founder Samantha Rothman said, "We are delighted to welcome Jeff to the Board of Grow it Green Morristown. He brings a wealth of knowledge and experience, as well as a tremendous commitment to GIGM."

Jeffrey practices in Riker Danzig's Litigation and Insurance Groups, focusing on complex commercial litigation, insurance coverage disputes, and insurance defense matters involving personal and premises liability, in both State and federal courts.
