

Environmental Associate Matthew Karmel Presenting on NJ's Environmental Justice Law

Riker Danzig Environmental Associate Matthew Karmel will join presenters from Aecom to discuss New Jersey's Environmental Justice Law: an Overview and What It Means for Your Facility on November 11th. The presentation will take place from 10:30-11:30, and will address the new law's potential implications for major air sources in the state. Now entering the DEP rulemaking stage, the new law requires an EJ Impact Statement and public comment on permit renewals and major modifications at any affected facility. Joining Matt on the panel will be Kevin Voit and Chris Whitehead of Aecom. To register, please email chris.whitehead@aecom.com.
