

Family Law Partner Allen Scazafabo Quoted Re COVID-19 Vaccine Disputes

Allen Scazafabo, Jr., a partner in the Firm's Family Law Group, was quoted in the October 25, 2021 New Jersey Law Journal article, "Vaccine Wars: Family Lawyers Fielding Calls From Parents Over Children's COVID-19 Immunizations." Allen told the Law Journal that he "anticipates there will be a lot of filings," as his clients "have indicated [that] when the time comes, one parent wants [the vaccine] and one parent doesn't." Allen noted, "It's a zero-sum game if both parties dig their heels in." He added that, "I would say to lawyers, 'You have to be very knowledgeable in all areas of science, in both arguments, on both sides, to best guide your clients.'"
