

Jenny Chung Sworn in as VP of Communications of APALA-NJ

Top left photo (left to right): Ryan O'Neill, NJ Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal, Jenny Chung

Top right photo (left to right): Ryan Magee, NJ Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal, Zahid Quraishi

Bottom left photo (left to right): Tommy Shi, Jenny Chung Bottom right photo: Jenny Chung

Jenny Chung, associate in the Firm's Products Liability Group and White Collar Criminal Defense and Investigations Group, was sworn in as Vice President of Communications at the Asian Pacific American Lawyers Association of New Jersey's 21st Annual Gala on June 1, 2018 at Mayfair Farms in West Orange. APALA-NJ is the largest specialty bar association representing the interests of APA lawyers in New Jersey.

The event was attended by approximately 200 members, judges, attorneys, and guests of APALA-NJ. Highlights included New Jersey Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal as the keynote speaker, Emmy-nominated television journalist Ernabel Demillo as the mistress of ceremonies, and Ravinder S. Bhalla, Mayor of Hoboken, who received the prestigious Trailblazer Award. Other awardees included Riker alumnus Tommy Shi, Head of Purchasing at Mercedes Benz Manhattan, who was awarded the Corporate Leadership Award. Also speaking at the event were Hanna Mori, U.S. Senator Cory Booker's Deputy State Director, Ronald K. Chen, Co-Dean of Rutgers Law School, and Hon. David F. Bauman from Monmouth County, along with APALA-NJ's Immediate Past President, Christine Kim Neeman, and current President, Jack Chan.