

NJLJ Names Partner Bethany Abele a “New Leader of the Bar”

The New Jersey Law Journal has selected Riker Danzig Commercial Litigation Partner Bethany A. Abele as a “New Leader of the Bar.” Following a rigorous evaluation process, the Law Journal selects lawyers who “have already built accomplished careers and, despite their youth, have established themselves as leaders within their firms and organizations, as well as within the larger legal community.”

In addition to Bethany’s impressive litigation workload, in which she represents title insurance companies and banks in complex commercial foreclosure actions, class action suits and coverage disputes, she has also taken on leadership roles in the community. She is serving as a Trustee of the Morris County Bar Association, for which she is Co-Chair of the Women Lawyers Committee, as well as serving on the Leadership Council for the Young Professionals Group of Morristown Medical Center. She is also heavily involved with alumni boards at Lafayette College.

We congratulate Bethany on this well-deserved honor.
