

Partner Joseph Schwartz Serves on Corporate Advisory Council of Homeless Solutions

Joseph L. Schwartz, Chair of the Firm's Bankruptcy Group, has agreed to serve on the Corporate Advisory Council of Homeless Solutions, effective September 3, 2019. Homeless Solutions offers shelter, services and supportive housing to the homeless and working poor in Morris County through outreach services, a Safe Haven Program for the mentally ill homeless, and a Family Transitional Housing Program. The purpose of the Corporate Advisory Council is to increase the visibility of Homeless Solutions and its mission among the local corporate and business community, promoting opportunities for partnering and employee volunteer/team building experiences.

In addition to Joe's role on the Corporate Advisory Council of Homeless Solutions, he is the Director of Membership for the New Jersey Turnaround Management Association, and also serves on the Turnaround Management Association's Global Membership Council, which addresses membership goals and strategies for TMA on a global basis. Joe is a member of the American Bankruptcy Institute and various other insolvency-related associations. In addition, he serves on the New Jersey Supreme Court District V-C Ethics Committee (western Essex County).
