Overview

Brianna J. Santolli started her career with Riker Danzig as a summer associate in 2016 and joined the Firm as an attorney in 2018, following a clerkship with the Honorable Robert J. Gilson, J.A.D., in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division.

An associate in the Firm's Health Care and Litigation practice groups, Brianna routinely researches and advises on compliance issues and handles an array of health care litigations, having both trial and arbitration experience. She brings a thoughtful and practical approach to her work for clients, informed by her experience as a law clerk in the judiciary.

Brianna earned her law degree from The George Washington University Law School in 2017, where she was the Editor-in-Chief of The George Washington International Law Review and received the President's Volunteer Service Award at graduation. She received her B.A. in Philosophy, magna cum laude, with a minor in Italian, from Villanova University in 2014.
