Overview

Sarah Heba-Escobar is an associate in the Firm's Commercial Litigation practice group. She started her career with Riker Danzig in 2016. Sarah focuses her practice in commercial litigation with an emphasis on complex contractual claims, business torts, corporate and partnership disputes, corporate governance, noncompetition issues and professional malpractice.

Prior to joining Riker Danzig, Sarah was a law clerk for the Honorable Travis L. Francis, A.J.S.C., of the Superior Court of New Jersey. During her time as a clerk she was responsible for drafting opinions and bench memoranda for various cases of general and complex commercial litigation, including insurance coverage disputes, complex construction claims, corporate disputes, fraud claims and breach of contract claims.

Sarah earned her law degree from Hofstra University's Maurice Deane School of Law in 2015. During her time at Hofstra, Sarah served as a student attorney for the Health Law and Policy Clinic. She received her B.A. in English with a minor in Sociology, from Rutgers University in 2011.
