

Mary Kay Roberts Quoted re Firm's Lobbying Success in Law360 Pulse

Governmental Affairs Partner Mary Kay Roberts was quoted in a March 12, 2021 Law360 Pulse article about Riker Danzig's strong lobbying efforts in 2020 despite the COVID-19 pandemic. "We were contacted by existing and new clients about the various executive orders and regulatory actions taken in the wake of COVID-19," said Mary Kay. "The governor, state agencies and the legislature were being proactive in taking action to meet the needs of the citizens and businesses." Riker Danzig was ranked among the top law firm lobbying practices based on data released by the New Jersey Election Law Enforcement Commission on March 9, 2021.

"The Riker government affairs team really pulled together for our existing and new clients during a challenging climate within which to communicate in an effort to influence legislation, regulations and administrative actions," she said. "Fortunately, we continue to have expertise, reputation and relationships that benefit our clients."

The complete article can be found at Law360 Pulse. (subscription required)

Attorney:

Mary Kathryn Roberts

Practice:

Governmental Affairs