Riker Danzig Partner Kelly Crawford, head of our Products Liability and Mass Torts Practice Group, was honored by the New Jersey Law Journal as a Diverse Attorney of the Year for 2015. The Law Journal sought out “extremely accomplished and worthy attorneys [who are] unquestionably among the top legal talent in New Jersey.” The first annual list was intended to “demonstrate that New Jersey’s best lawyers are as diverse as the communities they serve, and that, as a result, they offer a broad range of experiences and unique perspectives that enrich their advocacy on behalf of their clients.”

Kelly, who is a member of the Firm’s Executive Committee, truly exemplifies Riker Danzig’s commitment to diversity, inclusion and the highest standards of personal and professional excellence. We are proud that she was distinguished in the first “Diverse Attorneys of the Year” for New Jersey.
