

Riker “Litigation Department of the Year” Q&A by NJ Law Journal

Riker Danzig’s Litigation Group, honored as the 2021 “Litigation Department of the Year” in the general category by the New Jersey Law Journal, is featured in the article titled “Riker Danzig Saw 'Opportunities for Enhanced Communication and Deepened Connections' in 2020.” In an informative Q&A, Co-Managing Partners Lance J. Kalik and Michael R. O'Donnell discussed the Firm’s top litigation successes of 2020, technology upgrades prior to the pandemic, work-life balance of our litigators, and fundamentals on being successful in the current legal climate.

“To be successful in this environment, our clients must look to us as pragmatic, responsive and trusted advisors. We feel successful when we not only are achieving great results for our clients, but when we are truly partnering with them and getting involved in early stages of any case or deal, collaboratively evaluating options and strategically addressing next steps.”

See NJ Law Journal for the complete article.

Attorneys:

Lance J. Kalik · Michael R. O'Donnell

Practice:

Litigation